Revel in ECCO's simplicity and serenity A slice of tranquility too often missed in today's frantic world.

Located 12 miles from the south entrance to Yosemite National Park and an hour north of Fresno, the Episcopal Conference Center, Oakhurst sits at an elevation of 3,100 feet. We're high enough to escape the central valley fog yet low enough to enjoy a dusting of snow in the winter, along with a colorful four-season climate. ECCO's grounds encompass 163 acres forested with oak, incense cedar, manzanita and ponderosa pine. Our dining room overlooks an inviting pond on which our swan holds court.

We are easily accessible, even during winter months, so you can enjoy our natural surroundings year-round in the comfort of our climate controlled lodges and meeting rooms.

Established in 1982, ECCO has become the preferred retreat venue for religious groups of many denominations as well as nonprofit, educational and professional organizations.

You'll always receive a warm welcome from ECCO's staff at your home-away-from-home. All of us, from office personnel to housekeeping staff, are committed to making your stay with us the very best it can possibly be .

Lodging is available in a variety of configurations.

Sanford and Beardsley lodges offer rooms with one queen bed plus one twin bed or, alternatively, one full bed plus one twin bed. Quad rooms in both lodges sleep up to five persons, with one queen bed and one twin bed downstairs and another two upstairs in a loft. All lodge rooms have private baths.

Sherman Dormitory sleeps up to 46 persons in semi-private curtained cubicles with bunk beds.

Our deluxe Retreat House sleeps up to 8 persons, with one queen bed in each of the four available rooms. Two rooms offer private baths, while two share a hall bathroom. The Retreat House offers a full kitchen, and spacious dining and living room areas.

For those who bring their sleeping arrangements with them in the form of motor homes or campers, our RV sites come with complete hook-ups.

The Rivera Library, attached to Sumner Walters Chapel, offers a comfortable conversation area with its coffee bar and cozy wood stove. The Chapel itself, our largest meeting facility, accommodates up to 200 people.

Barton Room, which sits between the two dormitory wings, accommodates up to 60 people in relaxed comfort.

Lower Lyles East and West feature exquisite views of our landscaped grounds and pond and can be set up either auditorium or classroom style, depending upon your needs.

Sanford Lodge's Coopman Room works well for small discussion groups as well as breakout/living space for those staying in Sanford.

Guests may also enjoy the natural beauty of our St. Francis of Assisi outdoor chapel.

Our culinary team are committed to serving you the freshest meals prepared from scratch, which are wholesome and delicious. Special dietary requests for individuals can be accommodated when arrangements are made in advance.

Meals are served buffet style in spacious Lyles Hall dining room overlooking our lovely pond.

ECCO's high standards, quality accommodations and reasonable rates result in groups returning year after year. After nearly 40 years of serving the needs of our wide variety of guests, ECCO continues to grow, with new facilities planned for the future.
